Trade with Sensitive Goods

Raw Materials for Explosives

According to regulation VO(EU) 2019/1148 and consolidated versions we have been obliged since February 1, 2021 to check, within the framework of the due diligence required in the movement of goods, whether bans and restrictions on the distribution of the above precursors and the requirements regulated in relation to the supply of these precursors are complied with.

As part of this obligation, we as the manufacturer, seller or distributor must request a declaration of use from you as the direct customer for certain products.

This declaration confirms that these raw materials are only used in an authorized manner and will not be transferred on to third parties without authorization.

We would now ask you to complete the enclosed declaration of use in full and return it to us. and return it to us. Unfortunately, we can only proceed shipping the order once the declaration has been received and approved.
